

MILE HIGH YOUTH CORPS

Mile High Youth Corps helps youth make a difference in themselves and their community through meaningful service opportunities and educational experiences.

Field Coordinator: Health & Wellness

Position Overview: The Field Coordinator: Health & Wellness oversees crews of 10-14 YouthBuild participants (Corpsmembers) ages 18-24 attending a certified nurse aide (CNA) program at a local community college while performing health and wellness related service at Denver area nonprofits. The Field Coordinator: Health & Wellness is responsible for maintaining safe worksite practices, providing academic support during CNA training and clinicals, supervising onsite service and work-based learning activities, maintaining cohesive program implementation, and providing training and leadership development opportunities. This position works closely with community college faculty and staff to support curriculum learning, and with health and wellness service partners to assist with project completion and maximizing training opportunities for Corpsmembers. This position is partially funded by AmeriCorps, and works directly with Corpsmembers enrolled in an AmeriCorps program.

Reports to: Senior Program Manager: YouthBuild.

Responsibilities:

- Provide daily supervision to a crew of young people engaged in work-based learning through community-based health education activities and in health and wellness-related positions with local nonprofits
- Oversee and provide support regarding Corpsmember progress in a nurse aide training program and state CNA certification preparation
- Serve as liaison and on-site contact with community college nurse aide program faculty and staff, service partner staff, and other project sponsors
- Provide academic support to YouthBuild Corpsmembers in the areas of basic nursing skills, communication skills, personal care skills, and safety and emergency care.
- Serve as YouthBuild's Health & Wellness crew Safety Officer, ensuring Corpsmembers follow proper safety procedures and protocols, including MHYC, OSHA, and HIPAA standards; promote an open and safe space for Corpsmembers to share near misses, injuries, or illnesses to build a positive safety culture.
- Provide consistent and ongoing formal and informal feedback to all Corpsmembers
- Promote a solution-focused youth development environment in which Corpsmembers have the opportunity to develop new skills
- Maintain thorough Corpsmember records throughout the length of the program, including, but not limited to tracking programmatic activities, trainings, skills learned, project accomplishments, daily attendance, and time records.
- Support YouthBuild team efforts to lead Corpsmembers towards achieving program goals, including high-quality project completion, certificate and diploma attainment, post-program placement, and positive Corpsmember member experiences
- Engage in and supervise Corpsmember service projects in the community
- Assist with recruiting, interviewing, and hiring Corpsmembers

Mile High Youth Corps is committed to hiring candidates with unique backgrounds and perspectives. If you are interested in this position but are concerned that you do not meet all of the requirements or possess all of the necessary skills, or that prior convictions or your background might disqualify you, we encourage you to submit an application anyway.
